MEMORANDUM

October 31, 2014

To: NCRTD Board
From: NCRTD Counsel, Peter A. Dwyer
NCRTD Executive Director, Anthony Mortillaro
Re: Execution of IGC

ISSUE: Revision and novation of the Intergovernmental Contract (“IGC”) between all initial and new members of the NCRTD.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY:

The approval of new members is performed by the NCRTD Board utilizing the statutory requirements. In order to formalize and memorialize that action each Member needs to execute a copy of the IGC. Although Members may choose their own methods for approval of the revised IGC there is no authority which grants individual members the power to amend or decline to sign the IGC once the NCRTD Board has taken action. Failure to sign the IGC only creates doubts as to the membership and voting rights of the non-signing member and cannot alter the decision vis-à-vis the duly approved new member. The current, 2014, proposed agreement includes a “novation” of the contract which means it will correct any prior deficiencies where members have failed to execute or chosen not to execute prior amendments.

If a new member is added by a 2/3 majority vote of the NCRTD Board then the voting units will be re-tabulated based upon current census data to ensure that voting strengths of the members reflect their relative populations. As the NCRTD, its membership and their populations have changed the NCRTD has periodically changed Appendix B which sets forth the voting units of members based upon their populations. Due to annexations and additions of new members within the political boundaries of the old members, the voting units have changed and evolved over the course of time. In the past we have implemented Board approved changes notwithstanding the failure or in some cases refusal of members to execute the revised IGC. It would be preferable to have all members signatures on the current IGC so that there can be no question about the membership and voting rights of the NCRTD members. The NCRTD has no current plans to compel members to execute the revised IGC but would like to establish a clear record showing that the membership and voting rights of the parties are correct.

ANALYSIS:

The NCRTD was formed pursuant to State Statutes contained in the Regional Transit District Act, NMSA 1978, § 73-25-1 et seq. (hereinafter the "Act"). In addition to the Act there are the Intergovernmental Contract (the "IGC") and the "NCRTD Board of Director Bylaws" (the "Bylaws") which implement the Act. These three sources of authority are the "organic" laws and documents which form the foundation of the NCRTD. There is no law or authority which allows unilateral action by Members to alter Board decisions. There is a requirement that the district be created in the form of a contract. (NMSA 1978, Section 73-25-4) In the case of the NCRTD we have called that contract the "Intergovernmental Contract." That contract binds all 13 Members together into a single entity and resolves critical issues such as voting strength and the powers and authority of the NCRTD Board. There are provisions in the organic documents on how to add members. They are as follows:

THE ACT

The Act reads "After the creation of a district, a governmental unit adjacent to but not part of the district may join the district and determine the territorial area to become a part of that district. A two-thirds affirmative vote by the board shall be required before the governmental unit may join the district." NMSA 1978, Section 73-5-17¹. Clearly the statute does not address the case where a town within a county that is already part of the district joins the district. Nor does the law squarely address whether the 2/3 vote requirement is of all members, the members present, or of the voting units.

THE IGC

Article IX of the IGC is titled "Voting Requirements" and sheds some light on the process. Section 9.02 states that you need to have both a majority of the total number of members and a majority of the total number of voting units to have a quorum. Section 9.03 states that only a simple majority of the voting units present is required normally. Section 9.04 then states that "If a quorum is present, two-thirds (2/3) majority of the voting units is required for the following actions: (a) Addition or withdrawal of territory or property, pursuant to Article 8 of the Bylaws Article XI of this Contract, and Sections 73-25-6 and 73-25-17 of the Act;"² Section 11.02 appears to be the definitive section on this issue and states in pertinent part that "An affirmative vote by two-thirds (2/3) of the voting units of the Board of Directors shall be required before the governmental unity may join the District."

¹ Although this statute is entitled "Addition or withdrawal of territory by a district" it actually addresses membership not geographical areas and the addition of property is in fact addressed in Section 73-5-6 which also requires a 2/3 majority vote but expressly states a change to the IGC is not required to finalize that process.

² Again note that the cited statutes and sections actually apply to addition of members and in fact Section 11.02 of the IGC is entitled "Addition of Members."

The IGC also has a section that specifically calls out ex-officio (non-voting) membership. Section 6.02 (i) simply states that the “Board may add ex-officio members as needed. Because this section says “as needed” and does not require that the new member “join the district” I believe a simple majority of members present is required.

THE BYLAWS

Section 8.01 of the Bylaws is similar to the text of the Act and the IGC but is not exactly the same. The pertinent section on voting states “A two-thirds (2/3) affirmative vote by the Board of Directors shall be required before the governmental unit may join the District.” This section does not refer to the voting units.

CONCLUSION

In the past, the NCRTD Board has followed the steps required by state statute, the IGC itself and the Bylaws for the addition of new members and changes to voting units. The minutes of the meetings indicate that the votes were sufficient. This novation of the IGC is intended to confirm the membership and voting rights of all initial and new members.
