

New Mexico Intermediate Care Facility for Individuals with Intellectual Disabilities (ICF/IID) Statewide Regional Capacity Report September 2026

Intermediate Care Facilities for Individuals with Intellectual Disabilities (ICF/IID) are residential facilities (usually for adults) that provide ongoing care, treatment, and habilitation services for people with intellectual disabilities. New Mexico ICF/IIDs are licensed by the state. This report captures areas of lower availability and where openings may exist for admission.

If you need more information about ICF/IID programs and the referral process, please visit: <https://www.hca.nm.gov/intermediate-care-facility-icf-iid/> or contact Statewide ICF/IID Program Coordinator Jessica Trujillo at Jessica.Trujillo@hca.nm.gov.
