Note regarding the IRF Process:

Provider IRF Process:

The IRF process is informal and is provided as a courtesy to Providers. During the IRF process, providers must continue to implement their “Immediate Action and Safety Plan” and “Corrective Preventative Action Plan”. The IRF review is a desk review and does not have a provision for a face-to-face meeting between the provider and the IMB Bureau Chief.

When the IRF request is received it will be processed and if approved it will be forwarded to the IMB Bureau Chief for review of the case.

Providers will be notified of the IRF outcome.

Failure to comply with requirements for filing an IRF (1 through 4 above) may stop the IRF from occurring.

Accused Person IRF process:

The IRF process is informal and is provided as a courtesy to an accused person or provider agency substantiated for abuse, neglect or exploitation as the result of an IMB investigation. The IRF review is a desk review and does not have a provision for a face-to-face meeting between the Accused Person/Agency and the Reviewer.

The person conducting the review shall be neutral and have no direct involvement with the investigation or substantiation.

The person conducting the review shall issue a written decision within 30 days, giving the reason why the substantiation, by preponderance of evidence, is modified, affirmed or reversed.

The decision by the person conducting the IRF is final and non-appealable, except as otherwise provided for by law.
