LETTER OF INTRODUCTION

Dear Consultant Agency Provider Applicant:

This provider application packet contains the instructions, forms and other information needed to apply to become a consultant services provider for the Mi Via, New Mexico's Medicaid Self-Directed Home and Community-Based Services Waiver Program. The first section is an overview of the Mi Via program and a brief explanation of the central role of the consultant agency in the program. Subsequent sections include a summary of the application process, required application forms, a list of other required documentation and other pertinent resources such as the Mi Via Service Standards and applicable State Medicaid and Mi Via regulations.

The operation and oversight for the program is through the Health Care Authority (HCA). The Consultant Agency Provider Application will be reviewed, approved, and overseen by the HCA Mi Via Program Manager.

All Medicaid Waiver Programs are subject to all HCA regulations governing Medicaid and Home and Community-Based Waiver services. In addition, all Provider Agreements awarded shall be subject to the applicable HCA policies, as well as the Centers for Medicaid and Medicare Services (CMS) requirements. For more information on the CMS 2014 Final Ruling visit <https://www.medicaid.gov/medicaid/hcbs/training/index.html>.

Please begin the application process by familiarizing yourself with the program by reading the Mi Via Service Standards, including Appendices A-G, and the Regulations carefully. These documents are crucial for obtaining a clear understanding of the program and the expectations and requirements for consultant agencies.

Thank you for your interest in serving the participants in the Mi Via Waiver Program. For assistance in completing the application, please contact Tammy M. Barth at (505) 469-8480 or via email at Tammy.Barth@hca.nm.gov.

Sincerely,

SECTION I

OVERVIEW OF MI VIA, NEW MEXICO'S MEDICAID SELF-DIRECTED HOME AND COMMUNITY-BASED WAIVER PROGRAM

OVERVIEW OF MI VIA

New Mexico's program called Mi Via, "my path," "my way," or "my road," is the State's Self-Directed Home and Community-Based Services (HCBS) Medicaid Waiver program. The goal of Mi Via is to provide a community-based alternative to institutional care that facilitates greater participant choice and direction of services and supports.

Mi Via's Guiding Principles state that all participants have value and potential, shall be viewed in terms of their abilities, have the right to participate and be fully included in their communities, and have the right to live, work, learn, and receive all services and supports, appropriate to their individual needs, in the most integrated settings within their communities. Self-direction is a tool that leads to self-determination through which participants can take control of their lives and have more freedom to lead a meaningful life in their home and community, instead of living in an institution.

Participants who are eligible to receive home and community-based services are required to meet Intermediate Care Facility for Individuals with Intellectual Disabilities (ICF/IID) Level of Care requirements or Level of Care (LOC) requirements for individuals who are Medically Fragile. Individuals receiving an allocation to a waiver service through the New Mexico Health Care Authority (HCA), Developmental Disabilities Supports Division (DDSD) may choose to receive services and supports through the Mi Via Waiver Program. The program is administered through and operated by the HCA.

The State determines each participant's annual budgetary allotment. The State contracts with a Third-Party Assessor (TPA) for medical LOC determination, utilization review and authorization of the plan and budget. The State also contracts with a Financial Management Agent (FMA). Based on the authorized and approved budget, the FMA handles employer-related functions for the Mi Via participant such as processing timesheets; payroll and taxes; makes payment to the employees, service providers and vendors for services and goods on the approved service and support plan and budget; provides participants with a monthly report of expenditures and budget status; and provides the State with documentation of expenditures.

CONSULTANT AGENCY PROVIDER ROLE

Mi Via recognizes the essential role of participants in planning and purchasing services and supports within a State-approved budget. The consultant agency must be well-versed in the philosophy and practice of self-direction and home and community-based services that provide participant choice and direction of services and supports. The Consultant agency must also understand full inclusion of people with disabilities living in their home and in their community.

Education, guidance, and assistance are keys to successfully navigating the Mi Via Waiver Program. Mi Via's covered services include those services and support necessary for participants to live in their home and in the community, as independently as possible and avoid institutionalization. The array of services and supports for Mi Via allows the participant to design services and supports in a flexible and individualized fashion, utilizing qualified employees and service providers of their choice and/or generic resources in key life areas: living supports, community integration and health and wellness. Through the consultant agency, Mi Via participants are offered an orientation and on-going education which includes information, tools, training, and support, to make informed choices and to plan, direct, hire and manage their services and supports. The Consultant agency plays an essential role in monitoring the health and safety of a Mi Via participant.

Consultant services shall include sharing information regarding the range and scope of service that supports participant rights, risks, and responsibilities. The consultant agency will assist the participant with development of the person-centered Service and Support Plan (SSP) and budget, the emergency back-up plan and implementation of the SSP and budget. The Consultant agency will assist the participants in managing their budget. The consultant agency will ensure there is adequate support for participants needing additional “hands-on” support to be successful in self-directing their plan. This “hands on” level of support to participants is referred to as “support guide functions”. The consultant agency may elect to hire an employee(s) to provide support guide functions rather than have the consultant provide all services necessary for participant success. Minimum qualifications have been established for both consultants and support guides.

The consultant will make phone contact monthly and make, at a minimum, quarterly face-to-face visits with participants to review the effectiveness of their plan and emergency back-up plan, address any concerns regarding implementation and budgeting, suggest further resources as needed or requested and assist in making plan revisions. The consultant is required to make an annual in-home visit with the participant.

Other Consultant/Support Guide responsibilities may include but are not limited to assisting as needed with employer/vendor functions such as developing job descriptions, hiring, and supervising employees, and evaluating employee training needs.

Consultant agencies will be responsible for gathering data about the effectiveness of the services they are providing and for developing plans to identify and act on opportunities for improvement. State agencies will conduct periodic and random audits to ensure compliance with Mi Via Waiver Program rules and regulations, and with state and federal law.
