

Bill of Rights for Adults Who Have a Guardian

You have the following rights at all times when you have a guardian

Access to Justice Rights

1. You keep all rights that the court has not granted to your guardian.
2. You have the right to a lawyer who advocates for the outcome you want.
3. You have the right to be present and participate in all court hearings.
4. You have the right to let the court know your concerns or complaints about your guardianship.
5. You have the right to ask the court to review the need for your guardianship to change, continue or end and whether your guardian is right for you.
6. If there is a question about your capacity to exercise a specific right, you have the right to have a qualified person evaluate what you can do and whether to have some or all your rights restored.
7. You have the right to the support and accommodations you need to be able to effectively communicate with the court and to understand the court proceedings.
8. You have the right to have your rights explained to you in your preferred method of communication and in the language you choose.

Core Human Rights

9. You have the right to be treated with dignity and respect.
10. You have the right to be free from abuse, neglect, exploitation, and discrimination.
11. You have the right to remain as independent as you can.
12. You have the right to express and practice your own religious preferences.
13. You have the right to personal privacy.
14. You have the right to humane, safe, and sanitary living, learning, and working environments.
15. You have the right to sexual expression and to have your gender identity respected.

Decision-Making Rights

16. You have the right to a competent guardian who advocates for your goals, needs, and preferences and respects your desires, including medical treatment preferences, cultural practices, and religious beliefs.
17. You have the right to fully participate in all decisions, especially those affecting your care, where you live, your activities, and your social interactions, to the extent you wish to be involved and are able to be.
18. You have the right to receive necessary services and rehabilitation, within available resources, which protect your personal liberty and are provided within the least restrictive conditions.
19. You have a right to have your guardian prudently manage your resources.
20. You have the right to fully participate in decisions about how your property is managed, to the extent you wish to be involved and are able to be.
21. You have the right to keep confidential those matters which you wish to keep confidential unless that information is necessary to obtain services, to prevent abuse, neglect or exploitation, or to modify the guardianship order.
