HEALTH SCIENCES
Continuum of Care

FROM PATIENT TO PRACTITIONER:

LIVED EXPERIENCE, THE POWER OF SELF-ADVOCACY, AND NAVIGATING THE LAYERED COMPLEXITIES OF DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITY AND MENTAL ILLNESS

By Jaime Campbell, LMSW

Join us at the Continuum of Care or on Zoom for the Fall 2026 DDMI TUG

Monday 11/30/26 11AM-1PM

REGISTER NOW!

Objectives

- Differentiate how symptoms of schizophrenia and developmental disabilities may interact to influence an individual's perception, cognitive processing, communication, emotional responses, and understanding of treatment.
- Apply individualized communication and assessment strategies, to promote autonomy, and meaningful participation in mental health treatment.
- Understand how incorporating lived experience into service delivery, can improve the responsiveness and accessibility of DDMI care.

nasw NEW MEXICO CHAPTER

This course meets the qualifications for Continuing Education for LCSWs, LMFTs, LPCCs, and LEPs as required by the NM Board of Social Work Examiners, provided by NASW-NM.

HEALTH CARE AUTHORITY

(505)925-2345

2350 Alamo Ave SE.
Albuquerque, NM

HSC-Continuum@salud.unm.edu