

Camel Thorne: Camelthorne was introduced from Asia and is most commonly found in irrigation ditches, water ways and roadways. It grows well on dry or moist sites and will spread rapidly. It is known to grow through asphalt and is highly invasive.